Section 1: Background comments of the Head of Legal Services

- 1.1 Members should only address those matters that have formed the subject matter of the objection notice. Matters that arise that are not the subject of the objection notice fall outside the function that the Panel is exercising when it holds a hearing
- 1.2 Members must determine, having regard for the evidence, whether not giving a counter notice will impact adversely on crime and disorder licensing objective.
- 1.3 In accordance with the provisions of Part 3 of Schedule 5 of the Act, where a Licensing Authority gives a counter notice, the premises user may appeal against the decision, to a magistrate's court within 21 days of being notified of the decision.
- 1.4 Similarly, the Police may appeal against a decision not to give the premises user a counter notice. Any such appeal must be made to a magistrates court within 21 days of being notified of the decision.
- 1.5 The Human Rights Act 1998 incorporates the key articles of the European Convention on Human Rights into domestic law. Decisions on licensing matters are actions of a public authority and must be compatible with Convention rights. Consequently Members of the Panel must be aware of the rights contained in the Convention (particularly those set out below) when making licensing decisions.

(a) Article 6: Right to a fair trial

In the determination of his civil rights and obligations, everyone is entitled to a fair and public hearing within a reasonable time by an independent and impartial tribunal established by law.

(b) Article 8: Right to respect for private and family life

Everyone has a right to respect for his or her private life, his home and correspondence.

(c) Article 1 of the First Protocol: Protection of property

Every natural or legal person is entitled to the peaceful enjoyment of his possessions, including a licence. No one shall be deprived of his possessions except in the public interest and subject to the conditions provided for by law and by the general principles of international law.

(d) Article 10: Freedom of Expression

Everyone has the right to freedom of expression. This right shall include freedom to hold opinions and to receive and impart information and ideas without interference by public authority and regardless of frontiers. This Article shall not prevent States from requiring the licensing of broadcasting, television or cinema enterprises.

The exercise of these freedoms since it carries with it duties and responsibilities may be subject to such formalities, conditions, restrictions or penalties as are prescribed by law and are necessary in a democratic society, in the interests of national security, territorial integrity or public safety, for the prevention of disorder or crime, for the protection of health and morals, for the protection of the reputation or rights of others, for preventing the disclosure of information received in confidence, or for maintaining the authority and impartiality of the judiciary.

(e) Article 14: Prohibition of discrimination

The enjoyment of the rights and freedoms set forth in this Convention shall be secured without discrimination on any ground such as sex, race, colour, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, association with a national minority, property, birth, or other status.

Section 2: Financial Comments

- 2.1 Following consideration there are no financial implications concerning this application. The Director of Finance has been consulted in the preparation of this report and has no further comments to add.
