

Resident Action Day

29 June 2024, 10:00-17:00

Crowndale Centre, First Floor Conference Suite

Background:

Requested by the DMC chairs in 2023 with the objective to support and enable tenants and leaseholders to come together, share information and get involved.

Audience:

200 “Active tenants and leaseholders” who have been involved in housing action. Invites will be sent to current contacts to be shared.

Structure of the Event:

A marketplace of stalls to be run throughout the day. Empty table and sign provided. Artwork for sign and any posters can be provided to Camden by 20 May for printing.

Breakout activities (with pre-sign up) on specific topics

CLF stall: “Camden Leaseholders’ Forum – Learn about the forum and the work they are doing”

- Introduce the forum
- Gather contact information for interested leaseholders
- Attract further volunteers
- Update on past successes and current issues

Next Steps:

- Confirm participation. Names of volunteers to staff the stall to be confirmed and added to the list for the day.
- Artwork to be provided by 20 May
- Preparation of any material for updating – maybe a laptop with website, newsletters and file for capturing contact details?

CLF Update:

- Louise Upton is the coordination lead for the event and has been soliciting and noting names of CLF volunteers for time slots for the stall.
