Who is our Data Protection Officer:

The Council's Data Protection Officer is Andrew Maughan who is the Council's Borough Solicitor. He can be contacted at dpo@camden.gov.uk

What will we do with the information that you have provided to us?

The Council has a duty under the terms of its Petition Scheme to consider valid petitions submitted to it. We will only process the information provided to us for the purpose for which you have provided it.

Your name and address may appear in the papers of the council, committee or sub-committee meeting that is considering the petition. These papers are freely available on the Council's website and in hard copy from the Council's offices.

We will not transfer your personal data outside of the EU/EEA.

How long will we hold this information?

The Council has a legal and public interest obligation to retain records of all formal council, committee and sub-committee meetings, and this will include details of petitions made to those meetings. We keep your personal data for no longer than reasonably necessary and in line with our corporate data retention schedule.

Your data subject rights

You have the right to request a copy of the information we hold about you, the right to ask us to rectify, erase or restrict processing of your data, the right to ask for data portability, the right to object to automated decision making, and if we are relying on consent the right to withdraw consent at any time. There are some exemptions to these rights. Please see our website at <https://www.camden.gov.uk/your-rights> and the ICO website here for more information. To exercise these rights please use our web form on the website here.

The right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority:

You can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office if you are unhappy with how the Council has handled your personal data. It would be helpful if you contacted us first at dpa@camden.gov.uk to see if we can resolve the problem. You can contact the ICO at casework@ico.org.uk, telephone 0303 123 1113, or post to Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.
